

The page is decorated with numerous heart shapes of different styles. At the top center is a large heart with a complex geometric pattern of triangles. To its left is a heart with a scalloped border and small dots inside. To its right is a heart with a dotted border. Below these are several simple outline hearts, some with double outlines, and some with small circles inside. At the bottom center is a large heart with a zigzag pattern. Other hearts with various patterns like zigzags and dots are scattered around the text.
